Dear Dick:

I have had communication with your council since September of 1986 concerning the above-named individual. We really would like to complete this file and have all the information necessary for refusing registration should an attempt be made.

We need to know more about the legal action and whether this has now been completed. Please send us a newspaper clipping or court records which would give us the charges, the conviction, and the sentencing.

Let us know if we may be of help to you.

Sincerely,

Sodomy Trial

Two Men Convicted in Acts
With Six Teenage Boys

NEW YORK (UPI) — A former Boy Scout leader who plied low-income youths with drugs and alcohol to get them to perform sex acts has been convicted of 25 counts of sodomy for abusing six teenage boys, including a deaf mute.

It took the jury of six women and six men in state Supreme Court in Manhattan just five hours to reach a guilty verdict against Michael Olaskowitz, 40, an office manager for the Board of Education.

Also convicted in the case was Hilton Eldredge, 50, a driver for a cheese cake company, who was found guilty of 58 counts of sodomy as well as conspiracy.

Dear Paul:

There are only two additional pieces of information we have in regards to Mr. Olaskowitz. They are as follows:

1. An article which appeared in the The Westsider, which is a neighborhood newspaper on the upper westside of Manhattan, dated September 17 - 23, 1987 - a copy of which is enclosed.
2. Dated October 13, 1987, a letter from Daniel J. McLaughlin, Senior Court Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of New York noting that this case will be held on October 19, 1987.

As soon as more information is available regarding this case, I will notify you.

If you have any additional questions and/or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

A TRIAL BEGINS

Sodomy Charged to Two Men

An October 7 trial was set last week for two Upper West Side residents: one of them a Boy Scout leader, who were arrested early last year on charges of conspiracy and sodomy in connection with the sexual exploitation of boys between the ages of 13 and 16.

The two men, Michael Olaskowitz, 38, of 135 West 73d St., and Hilton Eldridge, 60, of 155 West 76th St., were arrested on March 22, 1986.

Along with two other men, Ralph Fernandez and Luis Paredes, both of the Bronx, who pleaded guilty earlier this year and were each sentenced to prison terms of one and a half to four and a half years.

Joint Investigation

The arrests came after a five-month investigation by a city police and FBI joint task force on the sexual exploitation of children. An undercover agent of the task force had infiltrated the ring, according to District Attorney Robert M. Morgenthau.

Olaskowitz, who worked as clerk for a teacher-training program administered by the United Federation of Teachers at the time of his arrest, was described as a long-time Boy Scout and Cub Scout leader and an active member of an Upper West Side church.

Eldridge, at whose apartment the arrests were made, worked as a baker in a shop in midtown.

The Charges

The indictment alleges that the defendants lured boys with alcohol, drugs and money to induce them to commit sodomy for nearly 21 months, from July 1984 until the arrest last year, according to Morgenthau.

The defendants were arrested at a party attended by several youngsters, including a six-year-old boy who was working as a baker in a shop with his family at the Martinique Hotel, Morgenthau said.

An earlier trial date for Olaskowitz and Eldridge, set for last week, was deferred because defense attorney's were unable to make the date, according to the District Attorney's office.

State Supreme Court Justice David H. Edwards Jr. will preside at the trial.
